

Cutting Horse

The cover of the August 2010 issue of Cutting Horse magazine features a photograph of Elizabeth Queen, a 2009 Non-Pro World Champion, riding her horse, Sister CD. Elizabeth is wearing a white long-sleeved shirt, a black cowboy hat, and a large, ornate silver belt buckle. She is riding a dark brown horse with a white blaze on its face. The horse is in a cutting stance, leaning forward. In the background, there are several black and white cows in a cutting arena. A sign with the letters 'NCHA' is visible in the background. The magazine title 'Cutting Horse' is written in large, red, stylized letters at the top. The date 'AUGUST 2010' is printed in the top left corner, and the word 'CHATTER' is in the top right corner.
